

Robert Steele, Professional Bio
Licensed Senior Associate & Senior Trainer, AtKisson Group International - Bangkok, Thailand

Mr. Robert Steele is Director of a Thailand based social enterprise called “Systainability Asia” that works with governments, NGOs, private sector companies and other groups to advance sustainability in the Asia-Pacific region by assisting organisations with sustainability-based strategic planning incorporating systems thinking, sustainability indicator development and assessment, multi-sectoral agreements and organisational strategic capacity evaluation and assessment utilizing the AtKisson Accelerator suite of sustainability tools. He is also the Southeast Asia Representative / Senior Associate of AtKisson Group International.

For the past ten years Mr. Steele has been organizing and facilitating organizational sustainability and corporate training and planning workshops within the Asia-Pacific region. His clients have included United Nations Environment Programme Regional Office for Asia-Pacific (UNEP-ROAP), the ASEAN Secretariat, the Singapore National Environment Agency, the University of Science Malaysia Regional Center for Expertise for ESD, the University of New South Wales’ Faculty of Built Environment, the Malaysia Federal Town and Country Planning Department, Hanns Seidel Foundation – Indonesia , the Thailand Ministry of Environment & Natural Resources – Thailand, the Indonesian Ministry of Environment, LEAD Indonesia, Indah Kiat Pulp & Paper (Indonesia), Metso Automation (Thailand and Asia-Pacific), AMTAM tbk Mining, Indonesia Power, Daimler Chrysler (Thailand) and Michelin (Thailand), Center for Sustainable Production & Consumption - Kazakhstan.